Bavlaforz

A handwritten musical score on five staves. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a 2/4 time signature, and the title 'Entr'no lusi do &c.' written in cursive. The music is composed of eighth and sixteenth notes, with various rests and bar lines. The notation is somewhat irregular, characteristic of a working draft. The staves are connected by a single line on the left. The paper is aged and yellowed, with some ink bleed-through visible from the reverse side.

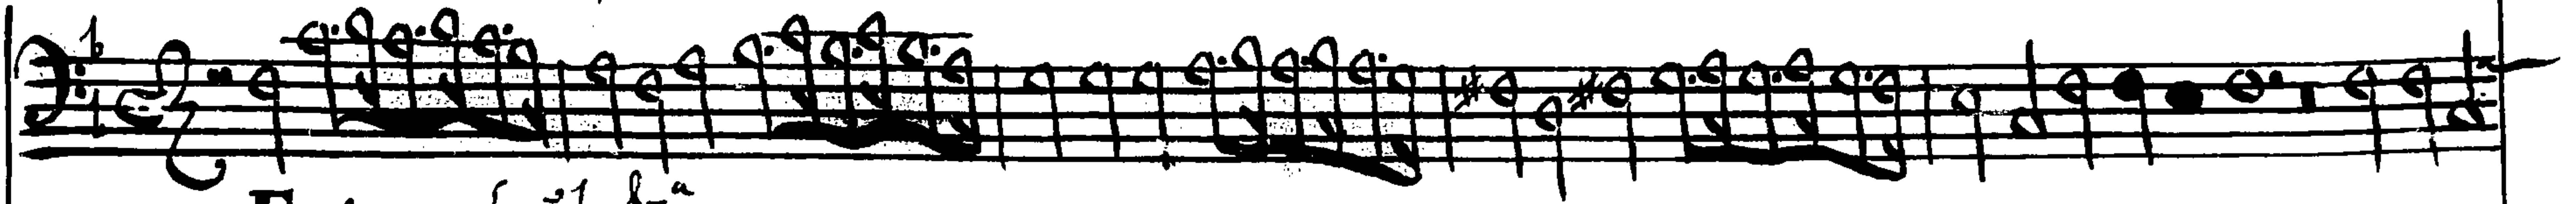

W. L. C. S.

Handwritten musical notation on two staves. The notation is in a single system, featuring a treble clef on the left. The music consists of a series of notes, mostly quarter and eighth notes, with some rests. The ink is dark and the paper is aged. The notation is written in a style typical of 18th or 19th-century manuscripts.
